11. Teams may use professional support (eg director) but all such services must be given without payment.
12. Performing royalties are the responsibility of each Participating team. Confirmation of permission to perform, or a licence to perform where applicable, clearly confirming the correct date and venue, must be lodged with the Festival Director prior to the Festival. The Venue may request the performance license be displayed on the day of the performance.
13. Failure to supply a valid performance license will result in the disqualification of the play from the Festival.

NB MADF cannot provide financial help towards the cost of a performance license. Regardless of the venue on the Isle of Man, seating capacity will be limited to a maximum 250 seats, and this can be communicated to the licensing authority.

14. Teams must provide copies of their lighting, sound, and staging plots no less than 30 days prior to the beginning of the Festival. These can be posted or emailed to the Festival Director or to the MADF Stage Manager at stagemanager@madf.im. Failure to do so may mean MADF is unable to offer the required technical support.
15. MADF may photograph and/or record any part of the Festival, (including the performances) throughout the event. Permission to Publish Consent forms will be issued to each team prior to the Festival. These give MADF permission to use any photographs or recordings for publicity and promotional purposes, and a member of each team will be asked to sign consent for the full team. These can be emailed to the Festival director in advance, or submitted to the Festival Stage Manager no later than the day of the performance.
NB you have the right to refuse consent, but this must be communicated to the Festival Director and Festival Stage Manager prior to the Festival.
17. If any team includes a minor (defined as a person aged 16 or younger), they must be accompanied by an independent parent or guardian, at all times whilst present at the venue. A copy of the MADF Safeguarding document will be made available to all teams, and if a minor is present at the venue, this must be signed by a member of the Participating team. The Safeguarding document can be completed in advance and returned to the Festival Director or Stage Manager.
18. Unaccompanied minors will not be allowed to remain in any part of the Venue.
